The candidate can select which Saturdays to work within a term

Candidate must be eligible to work in the UK

Escuelita CIC is seeking an enthusiastic teacher.

Escuelita CIC is a Saturday Spanish school based in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) methodology. This means that we teach different content subjects in Spanish (such as theatre, music, dance, science, forest school, and art) to children from Hispanic backgrounds. Our purpose is to proudly foster cultural identification, support language development, and promote Latin American and Spanish cultures in Cambridge. In this way, we intertwine the development of language competencies, the mastery of subject content, and the cultural identification of our pupils.

We are looking for a teacher to join our dedicated team to plan and deliver a content subject in Spanish to children between 2.5 and 10 years of age. Our ideal candidate should have/be:

- A Bachelor's degree or higher
- Native Spanish speaker (required)
- A minimum of 1 year teaching experience in Pre-Primary and Primary school; however, we will consider newly qualified teachers (ECT)
- Knowledge or training in CLIL (desirable)
- Excellent communication and collaborative skills
- Ability to teach in an exciting and engaging manner using effective classroom management skills.

The successful candidate must be able to demonstrate the right to work in the UK and pass an enhanced DBS check.

We offer the following benefits:

- Flexibility
- Children discount (a minimum number of Saturdays is required)
- Professional development (each term)
- Great work environment
- Accessible location

If interested, please send

- A cover letter stating why you want to work at Escuelita CIC. Please include your availability during the interview week (see below).
- Your CV, and
- Two references, ideally at least one reference should be able to speak about your professional background and your suitability to work with children.
